

Sharon Llodra Barrows, shining star, loving mother and daughter, beautiful sister, and faithful friend, age 44 of Woodbury, CT, passed away peacefully Tuesday July 28, 2009, at Yale-New Haven Hospital.

She was born in Bridgeport, CT, July 17, 1965, daughter of Ellin Patricia and Robert Llodra. After graduating from Roanoke College, she married her home-town sweetheart Robert Barrows, and together they had 3 special girls, Katharine, Julia and Olivia. Sharon celebrated every moment of the life that they created, and devoted tireless energy to her family.

Sharon also worked for her father Robert for 20 years, serving as vice-president of sales and marketing of RML Incorporated, a chemical distribution firm. She created deep relationships with clients and colleagues, most of whom consider her a close friend.

Sharon loved life and had a natural gift of bringing people together. A great laughter and lover of life, she was always enthusiastic, joyful and smiling. She enjoyed nothing more than making people feel part of her family.

She is survived by her parents Ellin Patricia and Robert Llodra of Newtown, CT, her father –in-law Robert Barrows of Mathews, N.C., her husband Robert and their daughters Katharine, Julia and Olivia, her brother Michael Llodra and wife Heidi of New York, NY, her sister Bethany Gilman and husband Chris, of Trumbull, CT, as well as many loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends.

Donations in Sharon's memory may be made to the Medical Intensive Care Unit Fund of Yale New Haven Hospital, P.O. Box 1849, New Haven 06508.
